

Check List - MISSION OBSERVER/SCANNER

- 1. All credentials current and carried (CAP membership card, CAPF 101, CAPF 76).
- 2. Appropriate dress for the mission (gloves, sunglasses, uniform for climate and terrain).
- 3. Complete sign in and reporting procedures upon arrival at mission base.
- 4. Complete mission kit: gridded sectional, plotter, flashlight, computer, local road maps, etc. Additional equipment suggested: binoculars, camera, clipboard, sunglasses, survival equipment, overnight kit, etc.
- 5. Obtain crew assignment.
- 6. Report with Mission Pilot for briefing
- 7. Assist Mission Pilot with planning for the mission
- 8. Maintain an accurate flight log of all observations on your sortie. Record all sightings' to include the time and geographical location. Include such things as other aircraft, ground parties, descriptive information concerning your search area, weather conditions (sun position, clouds, etc.), old wreckage, possible sightings, etc.
- 9. Conduct the mission as briefed and planned.
- 10. Advise mission base of any problems, delays, etc., per procedures indicated in briefing. Return to mission base on time.
- 11. Report with the mission pilot for debriefing immediately upon return to mission base. Applicable portions on reverse of CAPF 104 should be completed when reporting for debriefing.
- 12. Report availability for additional assignments .
- 13. On completion of day's mission assignment, return borrowed or assigned equipment.
- 14. Report any hazards or unsafe practices to the safety officer for follow-up action and hazard abatement.